

Den Chief Training

A Den Chief is a valued member of the Pack, helping the Den Leaders and Cubmaster with the program. If you are thinking about becoming a Den Chief, this class will prepare you. To be a Den Chief, you must be appointed by your Senior Patrol Leader and approved by your Scoutmaster and the Cubmaster of the Pack in which you participate. Before you take this course, you need to complete the online Den Chief training at <http://scouting.org/training/youth.aspx> before attending this class.
